

Resolution to Modify SRA Bylaws increasing Annual and Lifetime Dues

WHEREAS, approximately $54,000 is owed to chapters in dues disbursement to make up for money not previously disbursed; and

WHEREAS, the Assembly made a clear preference to retaining four full time staff members; and

WHEREAS, all budget proposals thus far have shown very slim margins between expected revenue and expenses; and

WHEREAS, dues have not kept up with inflation rates that see the cost of doing business continue to rise; and

WHEREAS, even if the Socialist Rifle Association annual dues are raised, it would still have one of the lowest annual dues among national leftist organizations; be it

RESOLVED, that Article Three, Section Four, Subsection One: Regular Dues of the Bylaws of the Socialist Rifle Association be amended to replace “twenty five dollars ($25)” with “thirty six dollars ($36)”; and

RESOLVED, that Article Three, Section Four, Subsection Two: Lifetime Dues of the Bylaws of the Socialist Rifle Association be amended to replace “two hundred and fifty dollars ($250)” with “three hundred sixty dollars ($360).”
