

Bylaws Amendment Simplifying the Budget Process

WHEREAS, the budget process currently rests the power of creating a budget in two administration roles while the ultimate responsibility of the budget is vested in the Assembly, and

WHEREAS, the failure of the Administration to put forth a budget since the passing of the bylaws two years ago caused numerous problems for the organization; be it

RESOLVED, that the budget creation will be a responsibility of the Assembly Committee on Administrative Affairs;

AND Article Four, Section Three, Subsection Eight of the SRA bylaws shall be repealed and replaced with the following:

The Assembly shall consider and vote on a budget prepared by the Committee on Administrative Affairs at every October session. If a new budget fails to pass, the previous budget shall hold until a new budget is passed.
